Section 4 DECLARATIONS

In accordance with WG guidance teachers undertaking induction must have QTS and must be registered with EWC in the category of school teacher.

In addition to this, under the Education Workforce Council (Main Functions) (Wales) Regulations 2015, registration is a statutory requirement for every qualified school teacher who carries out the specified work of a school teacher in a maintained school in Wales.

I confirm that I was awarded QTS after 1st April 2003 and that I am registered with EWC in the category of school teacher and will be undertaking induction as a short term supply teacher.

The EWC is a data controller under the terms of the Data Protection Act 1998. The information submitted on this form will be processed for the purposes of tracking, recording progress and administering funding for teachers undertaking induction. This information will also be processed for the purposes necessary for the EWC to fulfil its remit and its legal obligations as set out in the Education (Wales) Act 2014 and the Education Workforce Council (Main Functions) Wales regulations 2015. This includes maintaining a Register of Education Practitioners in Wales and undertaking statistical analyses. Individual teachers are able to have full access to information about themselves on the Register of Education Practitioners in Wales. Employers are able to receive a subset of this information and the general public may only be informed whether a teacher is registered or not.

The data (provided on this form and additional data held on the Register of Education Practitioners in Wales) will be shared with selected third parties including School Based Mentors, External Mentors, LAs in order that they may perform their role as the Appropriate Body in induction, the Welsh Government and any organisations contracted to work on behalf of the Welsh Government. No details will be passed to external organisations for marketing purposes without the prior consent of the teacher.
