

Dr Gwawr Taylor

I am a graduate of Bangor University where I studied Music and Welsh, before continuing my doctoral research in the School of Music. I am currently Assistant University Secretary and Head of Welsh at the University of South Wales where I am responsible for developing Welsh-medium provision and Welsh compliance across the University, as well as managing governance across the USW Group. I am Company Secretary to The College Merthyr Tydfil and Tydfil Training Consortium and work closely with the Coleg Cymraeg Cenedlaethol as a member and representative on a number of committees. I am a community governor at Ysgol Gynradd Gymraeg Hamadryad in Cardiff and I have worked and collaborated with school pupils, FE learners and HE students for a number of years.
