

Rosemary Lait

I trained as a primary school teacher at Caerleon College of Education before gaining the BA (Open) and MBA (Education) at Southbank University, London and have worked in education for over forty years. My teaching experience was across a wide range of schools in the primary, special and independent sectors. I was headteacher of a London preparatory school for 14 years. During this time I chaired interview panels for the Commonwealth League of Exchange Teachers, served on the National Executive Council of the Independent Schools' Association and also as a governor of a comprehensive school. In 2003, I joined Estyn as Her Majesty's Inspector of Education and Training in Wales. In addition to my inspection work, I served as Estyn's lead officer for safeguarding. Since my retirement in 2017, I have carried out charity work for the NSPCC and the Cowbridge Rotary Club.
