

Steve Drowley

I have had a career in informal, non-formal and formal education in both maintained and voluntary sectors. A former Head of Youth Service in Devon I was previously a Senior Youth Worker in Brixton and a Community Education Worker in Devon. I spent 5 years at the National Youth Agency before becoming Programme Director for Youth and Community Work at Cardiff Metropolitan University from which I retired in 2014. I am now Chair of Education and Training Standards Wales and I chair the Registration and Regulation Committee for EWC. I also play masters hockey for Wales.