

Biography: Hayden Llewellyn

Hayden is Chief Executive of the Education Workforce Council (EWC).

Prior to his appointment as Chief Executive of the EWC, Hayden was the Deputy Chief Executive of the GTCW and responsible for the strategic direction and management of its main operational functions, including teacher registration, regulation and professional development.

Hayden has extensive experience in both the public and private sectors and has worked in further and higher education, the health service, policing and for a multi-national retail company. He is a governor at YMCA Community College and previously held a similar position at Coleg Glan Hafren prior to its merger to become Cardiff and the Vale College.

Hayden is a former pupil of Gowerton Comprehensive School in Swansea. He holds a BSc Honours Degree in Statistics from the University of Wales Aberystwyth and Masters degrees in both Business Administration from Aberystwyth and Applied Statistics from Sheffield Hallam University.