

GTCW Data Analysis of Teachers recognised with Qualified Teacher Status (QTS) under European Directive 2005/36

Notes:-

- Data taken from GTCW records: applicants for QTS recognition under the European Directive 2005/36 where the application has been made between the 1st April and the 31st March for each year shown;
- Data relating to employment is based on the first employment record held regardless of the number of employment records a teacher may have;

Key Findings

- The number of applications from teachers qualified in EEA countries has doubled since 2009. This appears to be related to the extension of European Union and also the economic climate in a number of the countries within the Union;
- Over the last five years, the most applications for recognition received by the Council are from teachers from Spain and Poland, though the number from teachers from Poland is now declining following a peak in 2010-11;
- Most applicants for recognition are aged between 25 & 29 years;
- The majority of applicants are secondary trained, however it should be noted that in many European countries, teachers have qualifications that allow them to teach cross phase;
- 75% of applicants for recognition are female; which largely mirrors the profile of all registered teachers in Wales;
- The most common subjects that applicants are trained in are English / English Language and Physical Education;
- Teachers awarded QTS under the European Directive do not generally obtain substantive employment in Wales. (Tables 6 & 7 refer).
